

"Danish Grandparents Campaigning for Refugee Children" will demonstrate in Nytorv, central Copenhagen at 4 pm, 26 January 2016 against the bill before the parliament that very day. The legislation aims to punish the children by separating them from mum and dad for minimum 3 years, and by forcing them to live in comfortless camps.

The government intends to demonstrate to asylum seekers that refugees are not welcome in Denmark.

Speakers :

Coordinator Anne Marie Helger, actress

Carsten Jensen, Writer and Commentator

Michael Graversen, Film director ("The dream about Denmark"),

Line Søgaard, "Welcome to Denmark."

Louise Holck Vicedirektør, Vicedirector, Institute for Human Rights.